Hour Glass of Memories

Memories . . . to have and to hold . . . to forget and to remember . . . to influence for good or for bad . . . golden memories or faded experiences . . . all of these we remember from 1956-57.

To present the entire year in pictures was impossible. But the 1957 MURMURMONTIS Staff tried to recapture some of the highlights of the year and hopes you will enjoy our hour glass of memories. May the sands of yours be as rich as the experiences of the staff in gathering them.

Mr. Wesleyan

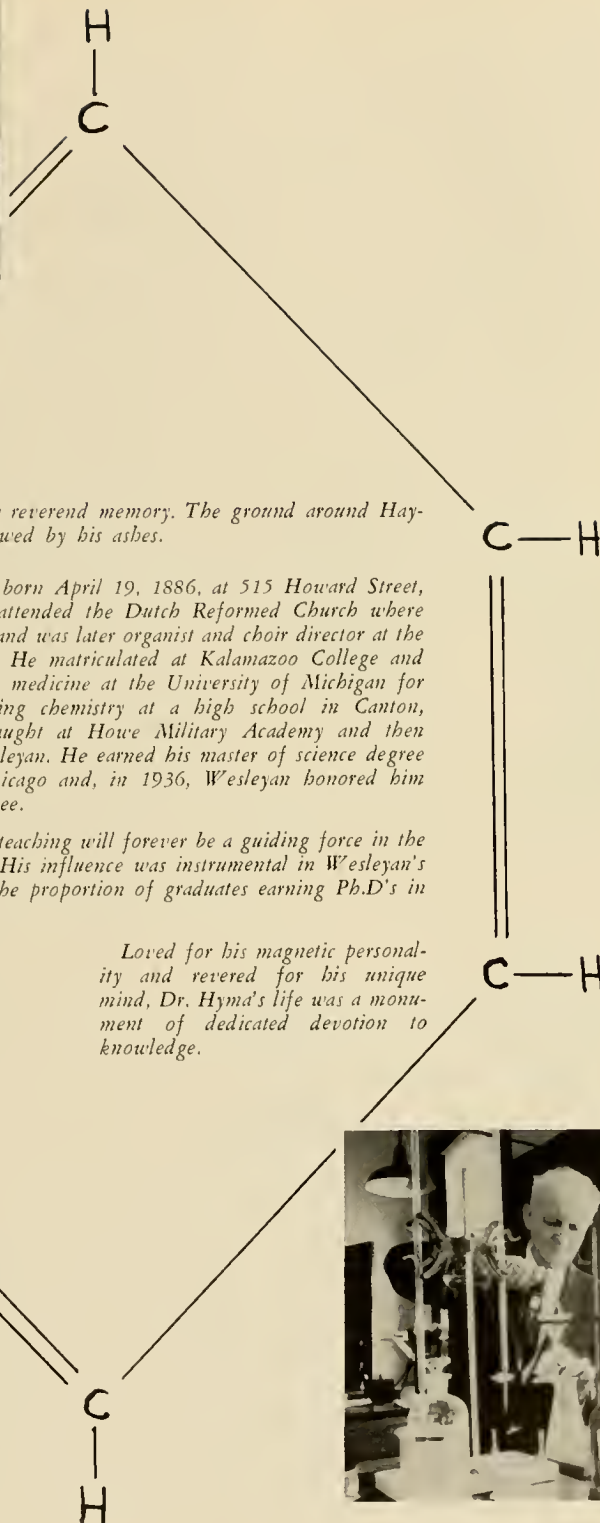

Dr. Nicholas Hyma, 1886–1956

*In Whose Memory
the
1957 Murmurmontis
Is Dedicated*

Dr. Hyma and the 1956-57 Benzene Ring officers

He is gone, yet lives as a reverend memory. The ground around Haymond Science Hall is ballowed by his ashes.

Dr. Nicholas Hyma was born April 19, 1886, at 515 Howard Street, Kalamazoo, Michigan. He attended the Dutch Reformed Church where he soon became an organist and was later organist and choir director at the Bethany Reformed Church. He matriculated at Kalamazoo College and pursued graduate studies in medicine at the University of Michigan for one year. He began teaching chemistry at a high school in Canton, Illinois. Nicholas Hyma taught at Howe Military Academy and then came to West Virginia Wesleyan. He earned his master of science degree from the University of Chicago and, in 1936, Wesleyan honored him with a doctor of science degree.

Dr. Hyma's inspirational teaching will forever be a guiding force in the lives of his many students. His influence was instrumental in Wesleyan's ranking thirty-seventh for the proportion of graduates earning Ph.D's in science.

Loved for his magnetic personality and revered for his unique mind, Dr. Hyma's life was a monument of dedicated devotion to knowledge.

Dear Miss Kincaid:

I am in receipt of your letter and photographs of the 1957 Murhumontis Queen.

It is a pleasure and an honor to be chosen to select your Queen, and if it were up to me I would like to make each and every one a winner.

However, as that is not possible I have selected #2 as the Queen, #10 as the runner up, and numbers 1 and 12 as the third and fourth winners.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,
Shirley Kincaid

SENIOR WALK

Did you know that the walk from College Avenue to the Ad Building is Senior Walk? Traditionally, only seniors should walk down its historic length past the old sundial.

From registration to Graduation we kept in close contact with the Lynch-Rame Administration Building. And what do we remember most? Of course, classes! We spent many hours listening to lectures here. Remember chapels, assemblies, and other programs in Atkinson Chapel? Everyone liked to sit in the balcony. Wonder why? Seniors were privileged characters. The Dean and most members of the staff have offices in this edifice. From the first day to the final hour, it's the Ad Building.

In the spring a young Bobcat's fancy turns to thoughts of the library. Not true, you say? Well, maybe the thoughts aren't there in this respect, but we spent a lot of hours there in the spring, didn't we? Term papers, books, outside readings, current events, baseball scores . . . we had to keep up and the place to keep up was the library . . . the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Library. Some of the larger classes were held there. Sometimes the hours were tedious and tiring, but we'll never forget them.

"In the cool, cool, cool of the evening" a song floats o'er the campus from the direction of the Loar Hall of Music and Fine Arts. How could we ever forget those lovely spring recitals of the music majors. And we recall the magnificent exhibits in the art department, too. The artists practiced and painted in Loar Hall.

In the Old Music Hall, sometimes called the "Old Music Box," are staff offices, faculty offices, sorority rooms, Veteran's Administration office, and other offices.

OLD MUSIC HALL

SCIENCE HALL

Though the Haymond Science Hall may seem isolated to some students, it is the favorite tramping grounds of the biology and chemistry enthusiasts. It is here "Doc" Hyma, to whom the MURMURMONTIS is dedicated, made his home. The grounds around the building are hallowed by his ashes.

Looking for someone? Then check the SCOW. That's the Student Center of Wesleyan where you'll find the snack bar, dance hall or "Blue Room," ping pong room, book store, committee rooms, offices, and, most important of all, the Publications Office where you can always find the MUMURMONTIS staff hard at work. Check that new parking lot outside, too!

(Above) No wonder the fellows say, "Never a dull moment in Fleming Hall!" What a battle that must have been! Freshmen, plus a few upperclass counselors, reside in this dormitory on campus. Men with workshops and some freshmen live in the Barracks behind the SCOW on campus while the rest of the male students live in town or in fraternity houses.

Party at Agony Inn!

Within these walls echoing with laughter and tears dwell over 160 coeds. They do various and sundry things: sleep (occasionally), engage in bridge games, attempt waistline reduction, and drink cokes while expounding philosophy. Girls are amazing people; they quarrel over the washing machines that stay in need of repair, they rush to count demerits on the second floor bulletin board after House Board meets Sunday nights, and always have parties during exam week. There are legitimate parties, too—all the dorm invited and birthday dinners. Who could forget "Man coming to all floors," and those timely chimes at 7:00 a.m., 12:05, and 5:35 p.m., and, of course, to warn parting lovers of only five minutes more. Things like musical grace, fifth floor hirds, signing out, and clanking radiators will never be forgotten.

Housemothers are Mrs. Julia Harold of Agnes Howard, Mrs. Joanna Hereford of "49," and Mrs. Jessie Wolverton of '68' in that order.

Party! Party at '68'!

Winter doesn't dampen these girls' spirits. Just look at 'em with that snow! They seem to love their home at 68 College Avenue. Being upper-classmen they know when to study and work, but they also know how to have parties.

(Right) We certainly can't leave our cooks out of the pictures. "49" House has Mrs. Mary Cottrill and Mrs. Mae Lowe (top) while "68" House and Agnes Howard Hall have six cooks: Mrs. Gladys Bodkin, Mrs. Anne Stalnaker, Mrs. Wanna Woodford (standing) and Mrs. Rena Bodkin, Mrs. Rosa Buzzard, Mrs. Augusta Van Tromp (seated).

Those juniors and seniors at "49 South Florida Street" have it made, especially since they got that new metal furniture. It's a couple of blocks from the campus, but it's quiet, homey, and quite a mansion. The quartet below seem to like it. They have their private dining hall, too!

New President . . .

DR. STANLEY H. MARTIN
President of West Virginia Wesleyan College

From Nashville, Tennessee, Dr. Stanley Martin arrived on Wesleyan's campus to assume the presidency of the college. Dr. Martin and his family began their new life during March.

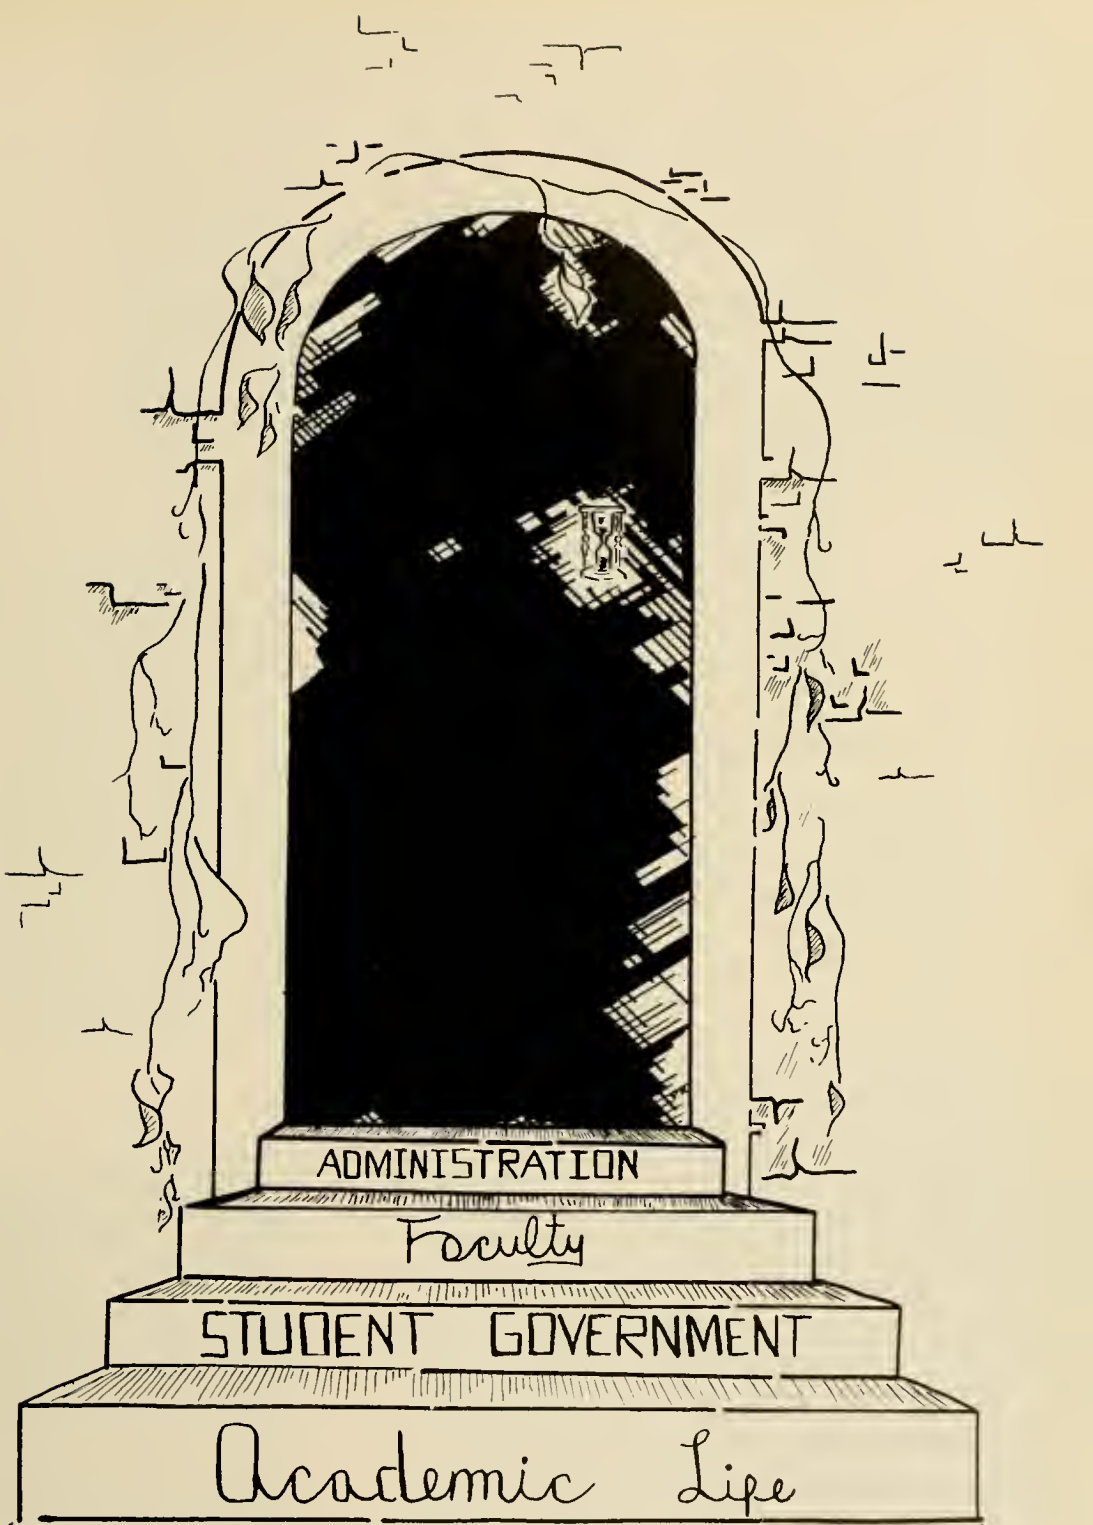

The Board of Trustees elected Dr. Martin to the presidency in mid-winter. He received his A.B. degree from Quincy College, Quincy, Illinois; and his S.T.B., M.R.E., and Ph.D. degrees from Boston University. For the past seven years he has served as director of the Department of Student Loans and Scholarships and of personnel for the General Board of Education of the Methodist Church. Dr. Martin has served on the faculty of Simpson College and of Boston University.

New Professor . . .

Dr. John Wright joined the faculty at mid-year as associate professor of chemistry. Dr. Wright comes from Newark, Delaware, where he was a research chemist for the Hercules Power Co. He fills the vacancy left by Dr. Nicholas Hyma.

JOHN C. WRIGHT—Chemistry—B.S., West Virginia Wesleyan College, Ph.D., University of Illinois.

Arthur Allen Schoolcraft—Dean of the College, Professor of Education and Psychology—A B., LL.D., Marietta College; S.T.B., Ph.D., Boston University.

For a quarter of a century Dr. A. A. Schoolcraft has served West Virginia Wesleyan College. As a professor, as dean and registrar, and as acting president, he has striven to make Wesleyan a fine liberal arts college, related to the Methodist Church.

Dr. Schoolcraft came to Wesleyan as professor of education and psychology in 1932. He became dean and registrar in 1944 and has served in that capacity for 13 years.

Last fall he accepted for a second time the position of acting president when former President William J. Scarborough resigned to accept the presidency of Baker University in Baldwin City, Kansas. He was acting president after the death of Dr. Joseph Broyles in 1945 and before the appointment of Dr. Scarborough in 1946. Dr. Schoolcraft will continue as the chief executive until the Methodist Conference appoints a new president.

Professor, dean and registrar, acting president—Dr. Arthur A. Schoolcraft.

Joan Williams asks Mrs. Shirley Filosa, secretary to the dean, about a senior's application for a degree while Harriet Aveyard checks the student's registration card. Joan, Harriet, and Shirley Post are student secretaries.

Miss Margaret Dean, secretary to the president, checks a letter for Acting President Schoolcraft.

Vice President

Instrumental in the operation of the college is the vice president, MR. JAMES I. LING. He directs the financial promotion program of Wesleyan. Jane Marple is his secretary.

Admissions Director

New admissions director, MR. RAYMOND W. KISER, dictates a letter to secretary Elsie Adkins. Mr. Kiser, former director of admissions at Davis and Elkins College in Elkins, W. Va., succeeded Mr. George B. Schum last fall. Mr. Patton Nickell assists Mr. Kiser as admissions counselor.

Alumni Director

Keeping up with the alumni is the job of MR. JAMES STANSBURY who became the first director of alumni affairs and public relations during the 1953-54 term. Mr. Stansbury is himself a Wesleyan alumnus.

Treasurer

MR. HEYWARD WILLIAMS, treasurer, checks the 1956-57 budget of the College. Students feel particularly close to this office when they register each semester. Miss Regina Kenney, assistant to the treasurer, is checking the books with Mr. Williams. Secretaries are Sandra McCue, standing, and Dorothy Robinson.

Business Manager

In his new office in the Old Music Hall is MR. WILLIAM HICKS, business manager of the College. Mr. Hicks is responsible for controlling the expenditures of the College. His student secretaries are Priscilla Howard and Phyllis Kuhl.

Publicity Director

"Copy! Copy! Copy!" exclaims MISS HALLIE LU HALLAM, publicity director as she writes diligently to meet her daily deadline. Miss Hallam is a Wesleyan graduate.

Head of Counseling

Deans of Men and Women

Working to promote the best interest of Wesleyan students are DEAN NELLIE WILSON and DEAN JOHN SHAVER. They encourage students at trying times and their doors are always open to all in need of guidance.

Student Center Manager

"We, the members of the campus community of West Virginia Wesleyan College, recognizing the need for an inclusive and efficient form of college government, and the democratic possibilities of a community government wherein students, faculty, and administration work side by side, do institute this constitution and dedicate ourselves to the realization of the objectives of our college through its faithful execution." (Preamble to Constitution of Community Council).

In the spring each class nominates a presidential candidate and one more than its number of class representatives. The Wesleyan student body elected in last spring's General Election as president, Art McDermott, and the following representatives: seniors, Cliff Buell, Dave Houston, Priscilla Howard;

Juniors, Harriet Aveyard, Janet Houston, Cliff Judy; sophomores, Mike Kundrat, Jim Scott; and two faculty representatives, Rev. Sidney Davis, Mrs. Juanita Parker. In September freshmen chose Donna MacWilliams, Bill McBride to represent their class. The membership chose Dave Houston, vice president, and Prill Howard, secretary, Deans Schoolcraft, Shaver, and Wilson are ex-officio members.

Community Council regulates many campus events through these committees: Awards, Conduct, Cultural Enrichment, Fraternities, Publications, Religious Activities, Social Activities, Student Union, National Student Association, Educational Affairs, Intramurals, Special Activities, and World University Service.

RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES—Dave Houston, Rev. Davis, Ralph Gay, Janet Houston, Roger Fischer, Ray Miller.

Football fever reaches a new high as freshmen instill tremendous enthusiasm into our cheering sections. Sally helps put real spirit into our thuse!

Classes convene and the campus resumes its normal hectic pace; the class of 1960 begins its long voyage into the sea of learning.

Kappa Alpha led a campaign to "Butcher the Eagle" and won first place float trophy.

Freshman Class spent endless enthusiastic hours to "Boil the Eagle" and placed second.

Homecoming

Homecoming, the biggest Wesleyan tradition! We elected Janie as our Queen and Mury, Jan, June, and Jean as class attendants. We listened to the choir singing selections from "The King and I," laughed at Wesleyantics skits, wished the rain hadn't drowned out the freshman bonfire thuse, froze during float parade and football game, lost to Bridgewater, thrilled at Danny Weeks' winning first in cross-country halftime meet with Marshall, reminisced with alums, and danced at the crowded Homecoming dance. It all added up to a tiring but gay and school-spirited weekend.

On Thanksgiving Day Wesleyanites gather at Loar Hall to thank their Maker for their many blessings.

Thanksgiving — Christmas Season

'Tis Saturday night before Christmas vacation. Most Wesleyan students celebrate at the annual Snow Ball. The new false ceiling made it more beautiful than ever. Jan Campbell and his orchestra played.

Thanksgiving dinner was a coed affair at Agnes Howard Hall. Paul Moser is the honored guest at this table.

Between Thanksgiving and Christmas were many campus activities. Glenda, Priscilla, and Marge prepare for a reception following a Cultural Enrichment program.

The combined choir-orchestra presented the magnificent, revered "Messiah" by Handel Sunday afternoon before Christmas vacation.

"Vacation in just three weeks!" shouts the student at Thanksgiving and before he can think coherently, the weekend is over, he hears Christmas carols, exams send him spinning, his little black book is crammed with dates and more dates, he's decorating for this and going to that, his Christmas shopping isn't done, he's forgotten about packing, there's another party, and vacation has come!

Students behold the splendor of the Christmas tree at one of Wesleyan's most solemn traditions, the tree-lighting ceremony.

LEFT: "Deck the halls with boughs of holly . . ." these girls sing a medley of carols at the tree-lighting program at Agnes Howard. RIGHT: Panhellenic hoped for snow instead of rain, but still show they have the real spirit of Christmas at their annual caroling. Fraternities and Independents caroled, too.

Daisy Mae and Lil Abner (Helen Simmon, Bill Pettibon) "reigned" at Sadie Hawkins Dance in November. 'Twas a sock hop and all Dogpatch turned out. Collegians, in appropriate attire, played. Refreshments were cider and spudnuts. Cider flowed and couples danced in the gym and had a terrific time!

Special Occasions

Dr. S. E. Gerald Priestly, noted English lecturer and traveller, spoke on current affairs. The Cultural Enrichment Committee presented him.

Music recitals are key words in the spring. Music majors and minors present beautiful recitals. A joint violin recital by Dr. Agey and John Murawski accompanied by Rhea Lea Chenoweth was excellent.

Birthday dinners are special occasions. At "Agony Inn" we found Glenda and Kay entertaining the girls before they went downstairs for the Valentine dinner.

Marina Svetlova, prima ballerina, thrilled her audience at a Community Concert.

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy," so the Summer School students took time out for relaxation. (Left) Check Gussie at the watermelon feast (Right) City Park is better than the dining hall on a hot, muggy day in July.

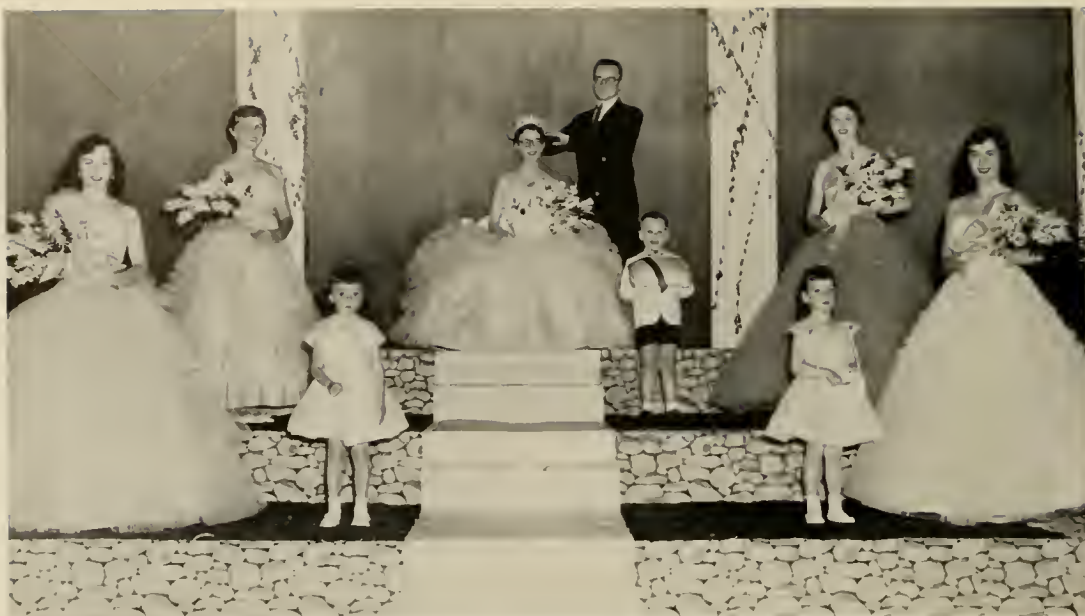

Summer School, 1956

If you want to have meals with your boyfriend, or vice versa, come to Summer School! For it's one jolly group at chow-time, at Agnes Howard Hall.

(Left) Everyone in Summer School will remember the Wednesday night swimming sessions. Sometimes we went to Audra, too. (Middle) After swimming one cool evening, we enjoyed luscious ice-cold watermelon. (Right) To some it's called work, but to these guys it was fun spelunking or cave-exploring at neighboring natural caves. The beautiful stalagmites and stalactites are still there.

Tumblers roll through their favorite acts before the gasping filled-to-capacity May Sing crowd.

Fulfilling an old Wesleyan tradition, senior women dance around the May Pole before Her Majesty and attendants.

May Day, 1956

The first weekend in May is a tradition that must be experienced to be fully appreciated. The May Sing on Friday evening sets the mood. Greeks and Independents have practiced since spring vacation for this memorable event.

And what would May weekend be without a May queen? Last year we chose Phyllis Hillman of Beckley from among our campus lovelies. We watched her Coronation at the May Sing followed by tumbling, square dancing, May Pole dance, singing by Harmonizers and other groups. Independents won the Sing which until three years ago was strictly for Greeks.

The music department presented a student recital. Haught Literary Society sponsored a breakfast. After the traditional picnic in the stadium, the Bobcats defeated D&E, remaining victorious in the WVIAC race. Couples danced that night in a spring garden at the May Day Dance, a lovely way to end a delightful weekend holding special interests for each of us.

Graduation, 1956

Ninety dignified seniors march to Atkinson Chapel. A distinguished faculty sits on a knowledge-laden platform. A guest speaker guest-speaks. The Graduate walks hesitantly across the stage for his coveted black leather certificate. He sings "Alma Mater of the Mountains." He is now among the 3400 Alumni of Wesleyan.

The photographer caught this group of M.S.M.'ers one Thursday evening following vespers.

Undoubtedly the largest group on campus is the Methodist Student Movement. Related to the National Conference of Methodist Youth, M.S.M. fills an important role on campus for members of The Methodist Church. Sunday morning worship services, Sunday evening fellowship, Thursday vespers, and fellowship teams are among the regular services and activities of this versatile group.

From dawn till dusk, Monday to Sunday, September to May the lawns and buildings of Wesleyan resound with the activities of "the people called Methodist." The year began with a retreat at Ev-Un-Breth Acres and included toy repairing at Christmastime by the Kris Kringles Kraft Klub. Brown Chapel was renovated and opened in time for Christian Emphasis Week through the efforts of the M.S.M.

The third floor of the Science Hall rang with the sound of busy students repairing toys for needy children. The Kris Kringles are shown at right painting and repairing at one of their sessions.

A typical Sunday evening finds this group in the Blue Room of the S.C.O.W. for fellowship and worship. Recreation, group singing, and guided devotions are the core of these meetings.

Students Prepare for the Ministry . . .

Methodist students at Wesleyan serve many churches in the central W. Va. area as Fellowship Teams. Their aim is to organize and strengthen Methodist Youth Fellowships and other related groups. Serving usually the churches of student ministers, the teams meet with the youth groups on Sunday evenings throughout the year. Jack Kissel, June Mearns, and Bob McLaughlin served as chairmen of Fellowship Teams this year.

Many students planning to enter the ministry find West Virginia Wesleyan College an ideal place to begin their studies. Pre-ministerial students of various faiths are found on the campus.

Several smaller Methodist churches of the area are served by students from the college. These twentieth century circuit riders become teachers as well as students. Below a group of these student pastors in the Group Ministry gathers in the chapel.

Some Campus Celebrities

A Time for Worship

Tuesday morning means chapel for W.V.W.C. students. Here we see the Reverend Mr. Davis assisted by Ruth Epler and Charles Perry. Dr. Ross Linger, of the Bridgeport Methodist Church, delivered the sermon. The ethereal music of the a cappella choir adds dignity to the services. Outstanding preachers address the student body during the year. Shirley Brinkman and Rhea Lee Chenoweth are the organists for chapel.

We were fortunate in having the executive secretary of the British Methodist Church, Dr. Erik Baker, on the campus last fall. Apart from his chapel address he met with various groups including this one in the drawing room of Agnes Howard Hall. Dr. Baker is seen at the center of the picture.

A Time for Discussion

Christian Emphasis Week . . . 1957

February 5-8

The Reverend Leroy King, editor of "Power," was the main speaker for Christian Emphasis Week this year. Resource leaders were Miss Ella Mae Redfern, D.R.E. at the Beverley Hills Methodist Church, Huntington; Dr. Garrett Evans, pastor of Christ Church, Methodist, Wheeling; and the Reverend Levi Miller, executive secretary of the Baltimore Conference.

Ella Mae seems to have the situation well in hand during a recreation program in the gym, Tuesday night.

Benzene Ring

The purpose of the Benzene Ring, the chemistry honorary at Wesleyan, is to create a greater interest in the physical sciences; to acquire a greater knowledge of the various branches; and to establish the scientific department upon a higher plane. The Benzene Ring is also affiliated with the American Chemical Society, the national chemistry honorary.

The officers are Tom McLaughlin, president; Dave Paisley, vice president; Marilyn Smith, secretary; Sharon Lundell, treasurer; and Dr. Gould, advisor.

Beta Beta Beta

For those attuning their attention to biological science, Wesleyan offers the national honorary society, Beta Beta Beta. Its objectives lie in promoting scientific knowledge and biological research. Those students who achieve sufficiently high grades and who illustrate interest in this field are accepted into the society. Officers are Bob Hetz, president; Dave Geller, vice president; and Lorna Cox, secretary-treasurer.

Pi Epsilon Theta

" 'Tis not too late to seek a new world." The motto of Beta Chapter of the Argonaut's Society of Pi Epsilon Theta illustrates its purpose of seeking to encourage the spirit of philosophical study and the value of voluntary discipline in serious inquiry.

Beta Chapter was founded in the fall of 1946. The group participates in the bi-annual West Virginia Philosophical Society meetings, sponsors discussion groups and guest speakers, and has an annual spring banquet.

Officers are Dick Evans, president; Ray Miller, vice president; Ronnie Brooks, secretary; and Fred Lanting, treasurer. Dr. Franquiz is the advisor.

International Relations Club

"We the members of the International Relations Club of West Virginia Wesleyan College, in order that we ourselves and our fellow students and associates may better understand the peoples of the world and the problems which confront them, have pledged ourselves to study and interpret pertinent issues of international concern unbiasedly, and to submit these studies and reports to all persons interested in world peace and the removal of barriers which hamper it."

The officers of the I.R.C. are: Joe Dizon, president; Vaughn Parsighian, vice president; Nelis Mendoza, secretary-treasurer; and Dr. Downey, advisor.

West Virginia Wesleyan's Psychological Society attempts to promote interest in the field of psychology and to provide opportunities for study and observance which the classroom cannot facilitate.

Panel discussions on sleep and hypnosis and other similar subjects are among the society's major activities. Field trips, speakers, and filmstrips are important phases of the society's projects.

Officers are Janet Houston, president; Shirley Armfield, vice president; Ginny Light, secretary; and Don Hoy, treasurer. Advisor is Dr. Jose Franquiz.

Order of DeMolay

The campus organization of the DeMolay seeks to afford an opportunity, for those students attending West Virginia Wesleyan and are active DeMolay members, to remain active in DeMolay work while away from their regular chapter.

During the past year the campus organization was instrumental in organizing and assisting the "Buckhannon Chapter" of the Order of DeMolay.

Officers are Larry Gardner, president; Bill Baughan, vice president; and Bruce Gourlay, secretary-treasurer.

Delta Psi Kappa

Delta Psi Kappa, a national honorary fraternity for women majoring or minoring in physical education, was founded at Normal College of the American Gymnastic Union in 1916. Alpha Eta Chapter was formed at Wesleyan in 1947.

Each year the group sponsors a project for the betterment of the college community. To raise money, the girls sell programs at the WVIAC tournament and check coats at all basketball games.

Officers are Barbara Beecroft, president; Pat Wilt, vice president; Linda Sowers, secretary; and Ann Queen, treasurer. Miss Etta Walters is the advisor.

Women's Recreation Association

Fun, fellowship, service projects, and athletic keys are benefits of Women's Recreation Association gained through such activities as a supper party, sport night, Christmas party to benefit needy families, Valentine Dance, and skating.

Officers are Linda Sowers, president; Carol Boyer, vice president; Sharie Dean, secretary; Irene Barrett, treasurer. Miss Etta Walters is sponsor.

Student Teachers

As a part of the requirements for a teacher certificate, student teachers acquire actual practice in Buckhannon and Tennerton secondary and elementary schools. They may earn three, five, or six semester hours throughout one or two semesters.

Future Teachers of America

The Morris P. Shawkey Chapter of the Future Teachers of America serves to develop a professional mind among students preparing to teach. The members take an active interest in teaching by studying educational problems and hearing outstanding educators.

Sociology Club

Juniors and seniors majoring in sociology may gain further opportunities in this field as members of the Sociology Club. Information concerning current social problems and employment opportunities is presented by speakers and through field trips to the prison, the children's hospital, and the state mental hospital.

Officers are Connie Range, president; Rudy Jablonsky, vice president; Annabelle Muse, secretary; and Ricky Lipetz, treasurer. Dr. Schaper is the advisor.

Betty Lamp Club

Majors or minors in the field of home economics have the strength that comes with unity in the Betty Lamp Club. The girls refinish tables, make curtains, and decorate tray mats for local hospitals as group projects. The group is putting into practice those skills they are developing for later life.

Officers are Judy Murray, president; Mara Linaberger, vice president; Elenora Chambers, secretary; Ann Queen, treasurer; and Mrs. McAllestor, advisor.

Playshop

The Playshop group attempts to further the art of drama on the campus by giving interested students an opportunity to express themselves through acting, directing, make-up, stage management, and costuming. Each year Playshop presents a series of plays for the campus and takes part in other events open to dramatic interpretation.

Officers are Evelyn Callaghan, president; Jim Lockart, vice president; Barbara Lefler, secretary-treasurer; Tom Goheen, historian; and Ruth Grose, wardrobe.

Alpha Psi Omega

Alpha Rho Chapter of Alpha Psi Omega gains its membership through Playshop; those students expressing superior interest and ability are asked to join. This national honorary fraternity aids Playshop and furthers interest in dramatic arts.

Officers are Margie McCullough, president; James Lockart, vice president; Janet Houston, secretary; and Mr. Shaver, advisor.

Haught Literary Society

Haught Literary Society attempts to further interest in the fine arts through a wide variety of programs, discussions, trips, and social events. Members are selected by outgoing seniors for their interest and participation in any phase of fine art.

Officers are Margie McCullough, president; Prill Howard, first vice president; Cora Insley, second vice president; and Kay Evans, secretary-treasurer.

Student Art Guild

S.A.C. perpetuates interest in the fine arts through exhibits, programs, discussions, and trips to art centers. Membership is open to interested students as well as those working toward majors or minors in art.

Officers are Max Muller, president; Bob Fosnaugh, vice president; Priscilla Rice, secretary; and Wayne Graham, treasurer.

"Let there be music" . . . Wesleyan is blessed with many and varied musical organizations. Musical extremes are found in the concert of sacred music by the choir and orchestra at Christmastime and in the "rock 'n' roll" emitted by the Collegians at a local dance.

The A Cappella choir is the largest musical group on campus. Under Professor Shafer's direction they provide music at chapel services and throughout the year. The choir made its television debut on WSTV-TV, Wheeling, during the regular fall tour. Choir and orchestra combined to present the "Messiah" at Christmastime. Dr. Agey directs the orchestra.

The marching band came in for its share of honors during the Homecoming parade. Considerable spirit is added to W.V.W.C. athletic contests when the band strikes up a martial air.

Panhellenic Council

Panhellenic Council, composed of two representatives from each of the sororities on campus, purposes to maintain high standards of fraternity and inter-fraternity relationships. It seeks to further intellectual and social standards and serves as a forum for the discussion of questions of inter-fraternity interest.

Inter-Fraternity Council

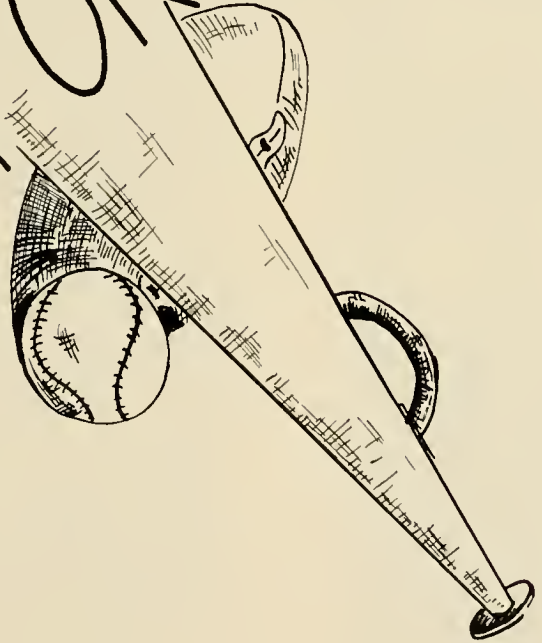

Inter-Fraternity Council operates under the direction of the president and one member from each fraternity. It holds as its objective the unification of inter-fraternity relationships and regulates rushing and pledging. IFC serves as a governing board, settling policies, and plans inter-fraternity social functions.

Inter-Fraternity Council consists of two representatives from each fraternity on campus. TOP ROW: Jim Lenhart (ASP), Ed Fellows (TC), Ray Miller (PSE), John Campbell (KSK), Ted Jungas (PSE). Basketball, 1956 - 57

In the sixteen-team conference, West Virginia Wesleyan ranked fifth, and, during the regular season, was the only team to defeat W. Va. Tech. Tech, the top-scoring powerhouse in the nation received a national rank of fifteenth by the Associated Press. The Bobcats also beat Alderson-Broadus whose Joe Miller ranked in the top three of the nation's individual scorers.

Ranking first to fourth in the conference were Tech, Fairmont, West Liberty, and Alderson-Broadus. Wesleyan was the only team to beat all four of them, claiming two wins over the Battlers of A-B.

The Cats opened their year with two triumphant games to win Glenville's Pre-Season Warm-Up Tournament. They got off to a bad start, losing three games in a row, but then had a profitable season except for a trip to the southern part of the state.

Leading WVWC's scoring and ranking high in state and N.A.I.A. statistics was our 6' 9" freshman center, Ken Remley, who scored 492 points during the year. The team as a whole was an even scoring one, with five men, Remley, Leonard, Hess, Kris, and Caudill, attaining double-figure averages. Only Leonard, Smith, and Bowman will leave via graduation.

Following an 89-87 upset over previously unbeaten Tech, Wesleyan trumped Glenville, 92-73. Remley shoots for the basket while Hess (No. 32) looks on.

Kristofik and Remley show Fairmont they're in the rebounds as Remley, 6'9" freshman, scores two points for the Orange and Black.

Rivalry is keen 'tween Wesleyan and D&E for this Traveling Saw. By a 116-62 we kept it in our trophy case for the fifth straight year since the tradition began in 1952. Captain Leonard, Community Council President McDermott, and D&E Captain Dick Niblett share the limelight.

Baseball Champs, 1956

The '56 edition of the Wesleyan ballers was a highly successful one. Riding on the strong pitching arms of Houdashelt, Earley, and Hitchcock, the batting of Jablonski, Meister, and Cvetnick, and the coaching of Hank Ellis the Cats copped the WVIAC championship with an unblemished ten wins and no defeats. Two of the top performances were the victory over West Virginia University and a staggering total of twenty-seven runs against Salem.

The Bobkittens again wrapped up another great with an impressive three wins and lost only one. The kittens were capably led by Captain Priscilla Howard and Patty Wilt. Golf, 1956

The golfers split an eight game schedule and if they had had another pair like Jeff Manser and Richard Lamperti, they too could have been a conference champ. With spring just around the corner, the golfers are very optimistic about this being a winning season. These boys are coached by Dave Reemsnyder.

Tennis, 1956

The tennis team is one of the more recent additions to the Wesleyan sports field. These boys had a rough time of making headway during the season. However, they were much better than their record indicates, as they played most of conference's top netters. Dave Reemsnyder, one of the hardest working coaches in the nation also coached the tennis team.

Cross-Country

Although not being one of the larger spectator sports on campus, the cross-country team produces one of the brightest individual stars in Danny Weeks. Weeks won all but one race and broke his own record over the winding Wesleyan course at Homecoming.

Other big assets on the team were Jack Pennington and Jim Fraser. The cross-countrymen were coached by Hank Ellis this year. He replaced Coach Messersmith.

Track

The Bobcat squad was another WVIAC champion, as they outscored all rivals in the final meet. Trail, Smith, and Weeks all scored high in the four meets. Coach Messersmith has eleven boys back from the squad and they should again rate very high in the conference.

Intramural Sports

Intramurals provide wholesome activity for those who do not wish to engage in further varsity competition. Much enthusiasm is shown at these games. There are intramurals for men and women, but only those in football, ping-pong, and volleyball have been completed. At press time basketball intramurals are going full speed. In the spring there will be baseball, softball, tennis.

Anyone who wants to limber a few muscles and have some good wholesome fun can participate in intramurals, an excellent program at Wesleyan.

"Let's Go, Bobcats! Let's Go!" What a lively cheering section we had during that tournament! Look at it here and imagine three times as many excited Bobcats in the same space at the Tech game!

Tournament Time

Buckhannon once again played host to fifteen colleges who, along with Wesleyan, competed in the West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Tournament, February 19-23. Crowded streets and restaurants, pretty cheerleaders, pom-poms, and a packed gym were sure signs of tournament fever. Wesleyan almost squeezed past Tech in that second round, but the nationally ranked team with record-breaking scorer, Ken Hammond, just wouldn't let us do it again. We're proud of that 87-84 score, though, and of being the only team to have defeated Tech during the regular season (98-87). (Because of our final deadline, we cannot print all tournament scores.)

BULLETIN: West Liberty over A-B, 92-87; Gary Hess, All-Tournament player, and Marg Carper, All-Tournament Cheerleader.

In Memoriam

Throughout the 1957 MURMURMONTIS thus far we have tried to give you a picture of the life on our campus. Now as we come to the section devoted solely to the students, we pay tribute to two students in particular. Robert Wills, in his third year at Wesleyan, was fatally injured in an automobile accident during the Christmas holidays. Jarle Svaan began his college career at Wesleyan in September and died of injuries received in an automobile accident near Buckhannon during the week before Thanksgiving. Both were well-liked by all who knew them. In loyal memory of our friends and fellow students, Bob and Jarle, we dedicate this section.

Classes

Golden Memories

Four years seems like a century when it stretches from the freshman to senior years of college. Ask any senior. The sands have changed many times in our hour glass of memories.

Remember that first day when Neil Penn and his helpers greeted us? How important and honored we felt! All the upperclassmen seemed eager to make us feel at home. There were meetings with counselors, rules to remember, clocks to watch, exams to wade through, schedules to fix, and everything to attend or to do.

That first year we made headlines. With Sarah Baker as class attendant to Mary Ellen Simpson, we honored her when we copped first place float trophy with "Duz we win? Vel we better! Lux to us!" And with Marilyn, Al, Annamary and the others in our skit, we just couldn't miss second place Wesleyantics trophy! Remember our Dogpatch Shmoo House on Sadie Hawkins Day and the merry chase of Daisy Maes after Lil Abners? Dick, Howie, and other freshmen organized the Collegians. Marilyn Aveyard attended Barbara Barron on May Day. Everything was new; we were no exceptions.

By the second year, we had calmed quite a bit. Oh, it was exciting, but by now we realized that college isn't all social. We'd had two rounds of semester finals and felt as if we knew quite a bit. We entered a float in Homecoming and chose Nancy Walton attendant to Bev Hamrick. Prill Howard represented us in May Day with Queen Corena Scott. Dave Sterling headed Community Council and Dave Trader succeeded Ray Miller as class president.

The third round began and we suddenly realized we weren't as smart as we had thought we were. Our class had dwindled from 195 freshmen to 138 sophomores but then jumped to 168 juniors. Many were in service. We'd joined Greeks and organizations and had no float and little class spirit, but we held important campus positions with four Greek presidents, Pharos and Murmurmontis editors, etc. Jane Gaston and Prill Howard were attendants to Barbara Maxwell and Phyllis Hillman at Homecoming and May Day, respectively. Walt Collins headed Community Council.

And now we're seniors! We're wrapped up in graduate records, comprehensives, and have had hundreds of exams. We feel like college veterans and are supposed to be very dignified, though sometimes we think back four years when we were expected to be anything but dignified. Is it any wonder we feel like whooping it up a bit sometimes?

Our class spirit is back but in a different form. We're in the same boat struggling for those black certificates given the last of May. Dave is still president, Rudy is vice president, Mury is secretary, Howie is treasurer. We've changed, expenses have gone up, we're carrying the load of the campus community. But soon the next class who were giddy freshmen when we were wise fools will step into our rain-soaked boots, and we will be "has-beens." It's been a lively century though, hasn't it, fellow seniors?

Seniors, do you remember our class in 1953?

Junior class officers are, no doubt, discussing what they'll do when they step into the seniors' rain-soaked boots next year. Ron Talkington, president, missed the main discussion but peeped in later. He's an English major from Clarksburg. Cliff Judy, vice president and biology major, declares he's a native of Clarksburg, too! Slightly north of dear old Clarksburg is Lebanon, Pennsylvania where Linda Sowers, secretary and sociology major, hails from. From the western boundaries of the Mountain State comes Bill Reiter, treasurer. He's a business major from Dayton, Ohio.

Just in front of the Ad Building we run into the Sophomore Class officers who seem to be coming from the library. We discover that all of them are Mountaineers. The chief executive, Richard Brooke, hails from Lumberport. From the southern part of the state comes Julian Trail, the vice president, of Beckley. Both he and Richard are chemistry majors. Jan Boggess, secretary and English major, claims Sissonville as hometown and June Smith, treasurer and elementary education major, is another Wesleyanite from Clarksburg.

The college community didn't have to wait for spring to hear and see election campaigns this year. The freshman class campaigned in September and SAA (Student Advancement Association) went all the way! And the north took this class. Art Smith, president and business major, hails from Elmira, New York. His right-hand man, Jerry Jones, prefers Pittsburgh. Jerry, vice president, is a pre-ministerial student. Keeping the class record is Secretary Gay Ramage of Hopewell Junction, New York. And last but not least is the keeper of the moneybags, Joe Tereshko of Lambertville, New Jersey, a psychology major.

The old and new editors conferred last spring and decided to give you at least one page where you could let your imagination wander.

Old Man Weather must have been against the freshmen.

But that Homecoming Game!

Pep rallies were great! Oh, those hoarse throats.

And now Wesleyan is famous.

Back in the good old days...

You ain't nothing but a hound dog!
How'd he get in the women's dorm?

Cheerleaders, Band, Majorettes...

Nancy's a popular gal these days.

Camphor King.

You mean we've had all this is our room?

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS by Dick Bibler

It's been a long pull, but the end has finally come. It all began last spring when we found ourselves with a yearbook, a yearbook that we knew little about but wanted to make a big thing.

The real work began in the summer. Between waiting tables, holding extra jobs, and enjoying the Atlantic in Wildwood, Shirley planned and planned the '57 MURMURMONTIS. Back in Buckhannon, Tom went to summer school, prepared budgets, visited advertisers, and labored over the financial end of things. By mail we compared and calculated. Can we afford color? Our budget is about $5600. Should we use color end sheets or a record? Finally we settled for color—less time and less likely to fail.

But after all the letters and work, we came back to campus in September with a lot of enthusiasm but too few plans. Nothing seemed to work right. There were endless questions, too much work for some and not enough for others, but what could we do? Our answer came in the form of a convention, the Associated Collegiate Press Convention in Cleveland. We missed the famous panty raids here but gained a lot of yearbook hints there—concrete theme, organization, division pages, etc. Most representatives were from large universities and they really gave us some good tips.

When the first deadline arrived Dec. 14, we felt pretty good. We finished a whole day early and left for Christmas vacation with light hearts. After Christmas we took group pictures that couldn't be fit into the tight pre-Christmas schedule. And it was terribly hard to think of another deadline.

But there was one all too soon—February 1. We heard someone mention "between semesters vacation;" but for the MURMURMONTIS staff there was no vacation. We worked harder than ever with yearbook and finals and on the first weekend in February sent in extra pages.

Now it's time for the last deadline, February 22. It's really rough, but we'll make it. We have to. This is the end, the final page and when we say the end, we mean just that. It'll take two months for the staff to recuperate and then the finished product will be here. We hope we don't have a relapse when we see it.

The yearbook was an experience. At times it was fun! Other times it was tiring and boring. The girls had never had so many "lates" before. But the yearbook must go on! We had a few parties, but were usually too busy to even think of parties. The office was a noisy place. Jim spanked the editor when she got too saucy, and she gave him more work to do.

Once in a while we had to take a break for a fast jitterbug or polka. If there hadn't been a few breaks, we'd have cracked up for sure. Tom sneaked a picture of Mr. Hiner who was shocked to see what a grotesque position he strikes when he takes a picture. Prill had to work all night on division pages. Kay, last year's editor, kept saying, "Just what are you trying to do?" We admit we tried to be different. Ann worked so late one night her family thought she'd been kidnapped.

And Dick Bibler drew us his "Little Man on Campus" for free. Tom figured how much we could pay him and then called long distance—California! What a help that has been! And now we have Bibler's baby for you.

Well, it's over! All we have left is our memories. Some are golden and precious, some we'd like to forget, some we'll always remember as experiences that could happen nowhere but in the Publications Office and on the MURMURMONTIS.
